Dear Harold—

Here is a copy of your Perrin memo. Under the aspect of history, you might consider the breadth of Jim Garrison's investigation, not to mention his personal courage. Warmest—

Joan

P.S. I confess to being disconcerted by your retracting what you told me about:
- Andrews admitting to you Shaw was Bertrand
- your conclusion it was Kerry Thornley at Jones Printing.
Walter Sheridan's friends are given to retracting, but you?
